

Allison Kiker

DVM

Dr. Allison Kiker was born and raised in Egg Harbor Township, NJ. She attended Stockton University and received her Bachelor of Science in Biology in 2018. During this time, she worked right here at Linwood Pet Hospital as a veterinary assistant and found her passion for veterinary medicine. She then went to veterinary school in Canada on Prince Edward Island. She graduated from Atlantic Veterinary College in 2023.

Dr. Kiker's interests include veterinary acupuncture, emergency medicine, and surgery. Outside of work she enjoys going to the beach, cooking, and reading.
