

Genevieve Carpenter

DVM

Dr. Carpenter grew up local to the South Jersey area. She attended Stockton University for her undergraduate degree, where she played field hockey and lacrosse. She graduated The University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine in 2018 and went into equine medicine as a general practice and emergency veterinarian.

Dr. Carpenter is joining Linwood Pet Hospital as a general practice and emergency veterinarian with special interests in geriatric care, reproduction, and general practice.

Outside of work she enjoys riding her horses, playing field hockey, and spending time with her poodle and sphynx cats.
